Dear all appointed sales agents,

RE: China visa requirement for international transit in Shenzhen ( except for Visa-free Country passenger )

On April 3, 2024, the Shenzhen Airport Border Inspection Briefing Conference announced:

From now on, all international flights from overseas to Shenzhen, and then transit from international to international via a second domestic outbound international flight (such as Beijing, Shanghai, etc.)

Passengers must be strictly inspected at the departure station to confirm that passengers hold a valid China visa or nationality is from a China visa-free country before they can be released; in principle, 24-hour temporary entry permits will no longer be issued except in special emergencies.

Kindly disseminate the above information to all your staffs accordingly. We look forward to your continuing support.

Should there any further assistance require, kindly contact us at 03-21661999.

Yours Sincerely,
Air China Limited / Shenzhen Airlines
