

Dear Trade Partner,

We're pleased to announce our Summer 24 schedule, underlining our ambitious plans for growth.

Our schedule is also making it easier for guests to stop over in Abu Dhabi to enjoy our exhilarating and welcoming home.

Highlights of the improved schedule include:

- Athens, Greece, sees an increase to 12 flights a week from May and 14 from July.
- Recently launched Copenhagen, Denmark is made a year-round destination.
- Malaga, Spain will enjoy a three-weekly service for Summer 2024.
- Mykonos, Greece will be served by two flights per week during the summer, with Santorini, Greece also getting two weekly flights.
- Nice, France will be served by two non-stop weekly services from June 2024.
- Bangkok, Thailand will benefit from three more flights a week from February to 17 a week.
- Colombo, Sri Lanka enjoys a frequency increase to 10 weekly flights from January rising to 14 from May, and an adjusted schedule for even better connectivity to European destinations.

The fresh summer schedule comes on top of new destinations already announced for 2024, including Kozhikode and Thiruvananthapuram on the Indian Subcontinent, Boston in North America, and Nairobi in East Africa.
